SUMMARY

Content marketer and writer who turns complex products into clear, useful reading, and then measures whether it worked. I write and publish thought leadership, newsletters, and educational guides for B2B audiences, produce conversion copy and multi-touch email sequences, and run the SEO behind it: keyword and competitor research, technical audits, schema, and GA4 and Search Console analysis. 15+ years in MarTech and SaaS, 4 of them focused on SEO. I've also trained and mentored teams, including sales training for tenured account executives at Wix.
