SUMMARY

Channel experience two ways: built AI-driven marketing automation specifically for home-services trade businesses (electrical, plumbing, HVAC-type) as a GoHighLevel affiliate at Solenzo, and managed a network of independent reseller partners at Birdeye, channel-model sales, not direct, spanning health, home services, and retail verticals. Not manufacturers'-rep or distributor experience specifically, worth saying plainly, but real fluency in how trade businesses operate and how partner-channel relationships work. On the AI side: builds and runs AI agent workflows daily as the operating model, not a tool bolted onto old habits, 20+ automated workflows spanning lead capture, qualification, appointment booking, and re-engagement, all self-built and continuously improved.
