SUMMARY

Marketing operations and CRM professional with 15+ years building and executing email campaigns, automation flows, segmentation, and A/B testing, most recently architecting 20+ live automation workflows on GoHighLevel and building email sequences and campaign assets at Level Agency. Comfortable managing multiple concurrent campaigns against deadlines with a technical, detail-first QA habit carried over from running SEO and structured-data audits. New ground, worth saying directly: no hands-on Klaviyo or Attentive experience specifically, no SMS-campaign execution, and no e-commerce/DTC brand experience, the platform and campaign-building fluency below transfers from GoHighLevel and HubSpot rather than the named tools.
