SUMMARY

Client success and account management professional with 15+ years coaching independent, service-based business owners to better results, not just managing accounts. Has built the exact systems this role runs on, lead capture, appointment booking with no-show recovery, review generation, for a portfolio of local service businesses, and holds clients accountable to the actions that move their numbers, evidenced by ~94% partner retention and quota rankings sustained while targets roughly doubled. New ground: no fitness-industry vertical experience specifically, though the underlying work, building lead-gen, appointment, and sales systems for local business owners, is the same function this role runs on.
