SUMMARY

Technical B2B sales professional who also builds the product he'd be demoing. At Solenzo, personally architects AI agent workflows on no-code/low-code platforms, hands-on with APIs and automation logic, not just a sales pitch about AI but real, working systems built from scratch. 15+ years running full sales cycles for technical buyers and business stakeholders alike, building GTM playbooks and outbound strategy from zero, and feeding structured customer feedback back into product roadmaps. Deep AI/agentive fluency; voice-specific experience is new ground, worth saying directly.
