SUMMARY

Hands-on SEO and content marketer comfortable owning the full function solo in a lean, fast-moving startup - technical audits, keyword research, on-page optimization, and analytics using GA4, Search Console, SEMrush, and Ahrefs. Currently running SEO and content strategy for my own B2B client base as founder of Solenzo, including full-funnel content creation, landing pages, and link-building-adjacent outreach campaigns. Comfortable stepping into a founding-team role and building a function from the ground up.
