SUMMARY

SEO practitioner with 4+ years of hands-on technical SEO work, schema and structured data implementation, and keyword strategy, paired with genuine, daily fluency building the AI agent systems and LLM workflows that are reshaping how content gets found and interpreted. As founder of Solenzo, I own strategy and execution myself, end to end, then ship it, test it, and iterate. Comfortable working at the technical edge of how bots and LLMs actually consume content, not just theorizing about it.
