SUMMARY

Implementation manager who knows the businesses on the other side of the platform. Through Solenzo I build CRM, booking, and automation systems for home-services trades (HVAC, plumbing, electrical), and at Birdeye I onboarded reseller partners across home services, health, and retail. At Wix I launched 25+ clients a month with up to ~25 in flight at 110% of implementation targets. I configure the system, migrate and validate the data, train the team, and spot the upsell when it fits.
