SUMMARY

B2B SaaS customer success and account management professional who runs high-volume books through a mix of one-to-many programs and targeted 1:1 work. At Birdeye I managed a reseller channel of 15-20 partners, used utilization signals to catch at-risk accounts early, and retained all but one (~94%). At Wix I carried a book of up to ~25 concurrent onboardings and 25+ launches per month, and drove a 25% conversion improvement across supported accounts. At Solenzo I design and automate lifecycle, onboarding, and reactivation programs, and I use AI tools daily to analyze signals and build customer communication.
