SUMMARY

Marketing operations leader with 15+ years owning digital marketing end to end, paid search, SEO, email and lifecycle marketing, website and CMS management, and analytics-driven reporting, for lean, fast-moving organizations. Founder of Solenzo, where I run every digital channel for a portfolio of service-based clients and direct outside vendors and agencies rather than only executing. Comfortable as the single owner of a brand's full digital presence, from campaign strategy through KPI reporting.
