SUMMARY

Marketing operations and systems builder with 15+ years bringing structure to fast-moving, cross-functional teams - process design, workflow documentation, and clean reporting that keeps distributed work visible and on track. Sold and implemented project-management/PSA software before building marketing operations systems myself, giving genuine fluency on both sides of the intake-to-delivery workflow. Comfortable as the connective tissue between teams: translating ambiguous requests into scoped, tracked work and keeping stakeholders informed without noise.
