SUMMARY

Growth marketer and full-stack operator with 15+ years in B2B SaaS, agency, and revenue operations, building demand gen and lifecycle programs from nothing rather than optimizing what already runs. Founder of Solenzo, where a complete email and automation engine - 20+ workflows across capture, qualification, nurture, reactivation, and segmented cold outreach - was designed, built, and shipped solo. Spent a decade owning customer relationships and expansion before moving to the marketing side, so customer marketing, CS partnership, and sales enablement are familiar ground rather than new territory.
