SUMMARY

Onboarding leader who has built and run the function, not just worked in it. At Wix I led multiple onboarding teams of up to 30 specialists over two years, piloting team structures as a new vertical went from proof of concept to a profitable business line, running weekly training and 1:1 coaching, and helping hire and train new team members, while personally launching 25+ clients a month at 110% of implementation targets. At Accelo I built the implementation plans that turned sales handoffs into delivery. I build AI and automation into the work to scale it.
