SUMMARY

Growth systems builder who turns SEO and content strategy into automated workflows. I combine hands-on technical SEO (audits, keyword and competitor gap analysis, CMS fixes) with deep AI/agent experience, breaking a content engine into triggers, decisions, actions, and measurements, then building the LLM-driven workflows that run it at scale. I translate strategy into precise specs, build the agents that generate and QA content, and design the evaluation loops that keep output accurate and on-brand.
