SUMMARY

Customer-facing operations professional with deep reputation management experience. At Birdeye, a reputation management platform, I onboarded and trained 15-20 reseller partners on review and reputation tools and retained all but one (~94%). At Solenzo I build automated review-request and follow-up workflows for service businesses. I keep records clean and follow issues through to resolution across teams. Before my SaaS career I spent 15+ years working in restaurants, so guest experience is second nature.
