SUMMARY

Customer success manager who owns the relationship from onboarding through renewal and expansion. At Birdeye I managed 15-20 partners and kept all but one by tracking utilization, spotting risk early, and stepping in before they disengaged. At Wix I onboarded 25+ clients a month at 110% of implementation targets. At Accelo I worked with C-suite and operations leads to map complex workflows onto a CRM and project platform. I run business reviews, coordinate escalations across product and support, and document every commitment.
