SUMMARY

Marketing operations specialist with 15+ years building and executing email campaigns, newsletters, lifecycle sequences, and marketing-automation workflows for B2B and service-based organizations. Hands-on with CRM/automation platform configuration (GoHighLevel, HubSpot), audience segmentation, landing pages, and campaign reporting, and comfortable working ticket-based (Jira) in a fully remote, process-driven environment. I document and standardize repeatable marketing processes so execution stays accurate and on schedule, and I actively use ChatGPT and Claude to speed up production work.
